RGS Worcester

Anti-Bullying Policy (Including cyberbullying, prejudice-based and discriminatory bullying)

Aim of this policy

Our aim is for every pupil to be able to attend school in safety and free from humiliation, oppression and abuse so they can learn in a relaxed, supportive, caring and secure environment.

This Policy applies to all four RGS Schools (RGS Worcester, RGS The Grange, RGS Dodderhill and RGS Springfield) and underpins specific Anti-Bullying Policies in place at those Schools.

The school's duty is to ensure that safeguarding permeates all activity and functions. This policy therefore complements and supports many other policies including, but not limited to the School's Safeguarding Children Policy, Child on Child Abuse Policy, Rewards, Behaviour and Sanctions Policy, Exclusions Policy, Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Policy, Sex and Relationships Policy, Images Policy, Online Safety & Acceptable Use of Smart Devices Policy and adheres to the statutory guidance Keeping Children Safe in Education issued by the Department of Education and updated September 2024. It is accepted that when undertaking development or planning of any kind the school will consider safeguarding matters as part of this process. This policy has been developed in accordance with the principles established by the Children Acts 1989 and 2004; the Education Act 2002; The Education and Inspections Act 2006; The Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014, The Equality Act 2010 and in line with government publications the Teachers' Standards 2012, 'Working Together to Safeguard Children' 2018 (updated December 2020) and 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' September 2024, and in accordance with the Prevent duty guidance (March 2015 and updated September 2023)

There is ONE Appendix that forms part of this policy, and it can be found at the end of the policy.

Objectives of this policy

- To ensure that all Governors, members of staff and volunteers, pupils and parents understand what bullying is, what the school policy on bullying is and follow it when a suspected case of bullying is reported.
- To ensure that every allegation of bullying is taken seriously for it can cause physical and psychological damage, even leading to suicide.
- To ensure that members of the school support each other by reporting all instances of bullying.
- To ensure that all members of the school are aware that we take bullying seriously and that it will not be tolerated.

Definition

The school views bullying to be the wilful and conscious desire to hurt, frighten or threaten another person or group, usually repeated over a period of time. It includes encouraging and manipulating others to bully. It may be overt and intimidatory but is often hidden and subtle.

It may occur directly or through cyber-technology (social websites, mobile phones, text messages, sexting, photographs or e-mail). This includes Child on Child abuse.

Please note that further advice about sexting in schools is available from the UK Council for Child Internet Safety (UKCCIS): Sharing nudes and semi-nudes: advice for education settings working with children and young people – December 2020

The School will not tolerate the use of the term ‘banter’ to in any way excuse what it deems to be inappropriate references to any person or persons. Please be aware that our Safeguarding Policy addresses Child on Child abuse and this should be read in conjunction with this Anti-Bullying Policy.

Bullying can be and includes for the purpose of this Policy:

- Emotional Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting (e.g. hiding books, threatening gestures).
- Physical Pushing, kicking, hitting, punching or any use of violence, threatening or obscene gestures.
- Racial Using racial taunts, graffiti, gestures because of someone’s colour and/or origin.
- Sexual/Sexist Unwanted physical contact or sexually abusive comments because of gender.
- Verbal Insults, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing and name-calling including comments made against particular groups for example because of disability, Special Educational Needs or on grounds of religion, cultural background, gender, sexual orientation or transgender status.
- Cyber All areas of internet, such as email & internet chat room misuse, social network sites, threats by text messaging & telephone calls, and misuse of photographic technology, e.g. cameras and videos. This includes sexting or threatening and/or blackmailing a person to share images of that person or purporting to be that person or connected with them in some way.
- Religious Unkind words or actions because of someone’s religion.
- SEN/D Unkindness because of physical or mental disabilities or having Special Educational Needs.
- Homophobic Treating someone unkindly because people think that they are or might be homosexual.
- Transphobic Unkindness due to someone’s gender identity, their perceived gender identity or because they do not conform to culturally conventional gender roles.
- Family related Unkindness because a child is adopted or is a carer, or the like.

Impact of bullying

Bullying results in pain and distress to the victim. Bullying is serious as it can make the lives of its victims a misery. It undermines their confidence and self-esteem and can destroy their sense of security. Bullying impacts upon its victims' attendance and attainment at school, marginalises those groups who may be targeted and can have life-long psychological damage. At worst, bullying can be a factor in pupil suicide.

It is acknowledged that bullies have complex reasons for their behaviour and may need help. The consequences of the bullies being allowed 'to get away with it' can be detrimental to them as well as to their victim. All pupils deserve the right to be helped to understand what acceptable behaviour is.

Bullying and the law

- Under the Children Act 1989 a bullying incident should be addressed as a child protection concern when there is 'reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer from, significant harm'. The normal procedures should then be followed in this matter. This applies to all forms of bullying, including racist incidents and a single serious incident or repeated incident may lead to consideration under child protection procedures. A log of incidents of bullying and of racist incidents is maintained in school.
- The Equality Act 2010 replaces previous anti-discrimination laws. A key provision is a new public sector Equality Duty, which came into force on 5 April 2011. It replaces the three previous public sector equality duties for race, disability and gender, and covers age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. The Duty has three aims. It requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to:
 - eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the act;
 - advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it;
 - foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
- Part 6 of the Act makes it unlawful for the responsible body of a school to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential pupil in relation to admissions, the way it provides education for pupils, provision of pupil access to any benefit, facility or service, or by excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any other detriment. In England and Wales Part 6 of the Act applies to maintained schools and Academies and to other independent schools.
- Section 89(5) of the Education Inspections Act 2006 (updated 2011) gives head teachers the power to regulate pupils' conduct when they are not on school premises and are not under the lawful control or charge of a member of staff. This can relate to bullying incidents occurring anywhere off the school premises.
- The Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014 provide that the proprietor of an Academy or other independent school ensures that bullying at the school is prevented in so far as reasonably practicable, by the drawing up and implementation of an effective anti-bullying strategy
- Although bullying is not a specific criminal offence, it is important to bear in mind that some types of harassing or threatening behaviour or communications could be considered a criminal offence, for example under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, the Malicious Communications Act 1988, the Communications Act 2003 and the Public Order Act 1986 (updated – Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994). For example, under the Malicious Communication Act 1988, it is an offence for a person to send an electronic communication to another person with the intent to cause distress or anxiety or to send an electronic communication which conveys a message which is indecent or grossly offensive, a threat, or information which is false and known or believed to be false by the sender.

- There are also criminal laws which apply to assault.

Procedure for dealing with an incident of bullying

What to look for

Pupils who are bullied may show changes in behaviour, such as becoming shy or nervous, feigning illness, becoming aggressive, taking unusual absences or clinging to adults. There may be evidence of changes in work and concentration patterns.

All members of the community must be alert to the signs of bullying and act promptly and firmly against it, in accordance with school policy.

Surveys have shown that in most bullying incidents, most people knew that what was going on was wrong.

What to do

All staff should ensure that the DSL or a Deputy DSL at the School is aware.

The DSL or Deputy will ensure that an appropriate member of the Safeguarding and/or Pastoral Team is informed, and a named member of staff is assigned to give guidance as to further action and ensure that all members of staff that need to be aware are informed, including the School's Senior/Deputy Head and Head, as appropriate.

If you are the victim:

- If you feel able to, confront the bully by verbally making him/her aware that you think that what he/she is doing is wrong.
- Share your feelings with someone else.
- If possible talk to a member of staff, your Class Teacher, your Tutor, the School Nurse (if you are at RGS Springfield you can tell a teacher that you need to speak to the School Nurse) or, if at RGS Senior School, you can speak to an Assistant Head of Year, Head of Year, Assistant Head (DSL) or Deputy Head (Pastoral). If you would rather not go straight to a member of staff, talk to your friends or to senior pupils. They may well be able to advise on an appropriate course of action, or will be able to involve other people who can. RGSW pupils can also use Tootoot to seek help from staff in the first instance. There are also people outside the School who would be willing to help, for example Childline: 0800 1111 and Samaritans: 116 123.

If you are a pupil who witnesses bullying behaviour:

- Support the victim by offering your friendship and make it clear that in your opinion what is happening to them is wrong.
- Encourage them to speak out on their own behalf by confronting the bully, or with their permission, confront the bully yourself.

- Accompany the victim to a trusted adult, or suggest that you see their Class Teacher, their Tutor, the School Nurse or, if at RGS Senior School, their Head of Year or Assistant Head of Year, Assistant Head (DSL) or Deputy Head (Pastoral).
- If you are at RGSW, you can report your concerns using Tootoot.

If you are a member of Staff who witnesses bullying behaviour or it is reported to you:

- Sometimes people, either through lethargy, peer group pressure, or tacit support for what was going on, fail to take action. This must not happen.
- Reassure and support the pupils involved.
- Advise them that you are required to pass details on to the relevant members of staff (see below).
- Inform the DSL at the School, as soon as possible.
- The member of staff who witnessed bullying behaviour, or to whom bullying behaviour was reported, should record the incident and ensure that the DSL and:
For RGS Senior School, that the Deputy Head (Pastoral), Assistant Head (DSL) and Senior Deputy Head are informed.
For RGS The Grange and RGS Springfield, that Head is also informed.
- The Deputy Head (Pastoral) will keep a central log of all complaints or incidences of bullying and record the way in which they were dealt with.

What will happen

- The victim will be interviewed by their Class Teacher or, Form Tutor, Head of Year, Assistant Head of Year, Head of Section, Deputy Head (Pastoral) or Assistant Head (DSL) on their own and asked to describe and write an immediate account of events. The process for dealing with bullying will be explained clearly to them.
- The victim will also be given the opportunity to discuss their own reactions and behaviour towards the alleged perpetrator.
- Once the Deputy Head, (Pastoral), DSL or dDSL is clear that a bullying offence has been committed, the alleged perpetrator and any others involved will be interviewed individually and asked to write an immediate account of events. The process for dealing with bullying will be explained clearly to them.
- Support and advice will be given as appropriate to all pupils involved.
- Details of the incident will be recorded on all the pupils' files until they are 25 years old using the Bullying Incident Form, Appendix 1. The Deputy Head (Pastoral) and Assistant Head (DSL) is copied in so that it can be recorded as a bullying incident.
- Parents of all pupils involved will be contacted and a meeting may be arranged if deemed appropriate by the Deputy Head (Pastoral) or DSL.
- A review will be undertaken after each incident logged as a bullying incident to determine whether or not a pattern can be identified and to evaluate the effectiveness of the approach adopted.
- If it is decided that it is not to be labelled a bullying incident the matter will be dealt with under the School's Rewards, Behaviour and Sanctions Policy.
- Those involved in supporting the pupil will continue to monitor the situation and speak to the DSL if there are further concerns or if they feel that the victim or bully require further support (e.g. say that they now feel ready to work with the School Counsellor).

Sanctions

A suitable sanction will be given in accordance with the school's Rewards, Behaviour and Sanctions Policy. If there is a disclosure about Child on Child abuse all of the children involved, whether perpetrator or victim, will be treated as being 'at risk' – please see section on Child on Child abuse below. Although these sanctions will vary with the seriousness and the length of the offences, suspension and exclusion will be employed if deemed appropriate in cases of severe and persistent bullying.

- In very serious cases it may be necessary to make a report to the Police or Children's Social Care Services. However, it is the policy of the School to attempt to resolve such issues internally using our own disciplinary sanctions, unless the matter is of such gravity that a criminal prosecution is likely.

What can we do to prevent bullying at RGS Worcester?

As a school community we will not allow cases of bullying to go unreported but will speak up, even at risk to ourselves.

This requires staff to:

- be positive role models in word and action at all times
- be observant of signs of distress or suspected incidents of bullying
- make efforts to remove occasions for bullying by active patrolling during supervision duty
- take steps to help victims and remove sources of distress without placing the victim at further risk
- not encourage retaliation

This requires pupils to:

- refuse to be involved in any bullying situation.
- if appropriate, take some preventative action if present when bullying occurs OR
- report the incident or suspected incident to any member of staff and thereby help break down the code of secrecy

This requires the school to:

- inform parents that it will not tolerate bullying
- take a positive approach to educating students to combat bullying
- recognise that both the bullied and the perpetrators need appropriate support
- raise the awareness of staff about bullying via training and ensure all members of staff are aware of the policy and procedures, especially with regard to the monitoring of any strategies put in place
- take any action that is reasonable to reduce the risk of bullying at times and places where it is most likely
- use PSHCE lessons, assemblies, drama, stories, literature, historical events, current affairs and so on to explore the nature of bullying, the reasons it might occur and to suggest strategies for dealing with it
- the key points from this policy will be displayed in the school's calendar
- to dovetail the Anti-Bullying Policy with the school's Rewards, Behaviour and Sanctions

Policy

The School recommends that parents of anyone being bullied should:

- watch for signs of distress in their child
- take an active interest in their child's social life and acquaintances
- advise their child to tell a member of staff about the incident. If possible allow students to report and deal with the problem themselves for much respect and confidence can be gained from this course of action
- inform the School if bullying is suspected as soon as they are made aware by their child
- not encourage retaliation
- be willing to attend interviews at the School if their child has been involved in any bullying incidents

The School recommends that parents of children involved in bullying should:

- discuss the issues with their child
- be willing to attend school for discussions
- join with the school in any measures which are taken to resolve the matter

Anonymous Reporting App for Pupils

All pupils have access to Tootoot which allows them to anonymously disclose concerns, including those about bullying.

Review

The policy and procedure will be reviewed annually by the Deputy Head (Pastoral) and Assistant Head (DSL) and Heads of RGS Dodderhill, RGS The Grange and RGS Springfield. A brief report will be given annually to the Governors in the Trinity Term.
